P.)—Announcement that the International Olympic committee had chosen Antwerp for the Olympic games in 1920 by Baron Pierre de Coubertin, president of the committee, at a meeting here today to celebrate the 25th anniversary of the colleges.

This year the army is standardizing a contabilishment of the Olympics was in a good broadening its work and the programme of that body. It has an active and joint membership of about 136, including all the larger colleges and Universities of the United States It is the belief of the committee that all but a very few of the schools will enter 80 per cent of their male fresh man enrollment, the percentage necessary to have their marks counted in the competition.

For this gigantic meet, the largest ever attempted in the college world four events have been selected: The running high jump, the running broad jump, the one hundred yard dash and the ear vault. The scoring is within the basis of performance within cer-tain limits, these limits being as near as possible those of the average young The standards of mark fol low: 100 yard dash, 13 seconds, 1 point
